

If you are a student aged 18-25, you may be eligible to take part in a research study about how people with different personalities feel like they belong at their college or university.

This is important because if some people are less likely to feel they belong, we can know where to help.

To find out more, and to access the questionnaire, please scan the QR code

10-15 minutes

Questionnaire

Access online

Anonymous