

NEA Essay Plan

Introduction

Main Body of Essay:

Point/Idea 1:

What AO4 comparison/connection am I making between both texts?

AO1- What quotations are you using to support point 1?  AO1- What is the method here?  AO2- What analysis are you discussing?  AO2- What meanings/connotations are created?
AO3- What key aspects of context would you draw on here to support your point/evidence/analysis?  How would readers/audiences respond to this?
AO5- Which critic/interpretation am I going to use to support? What is the quotation that best supports my point/analysis/context?
AO5- How does this interpretation compare to my own view? Am I in agreement with it? Do I disagree with it? How does it position my own view? (AO5)?

Point/Idea 2:

What AO4 comparison/connection am I making between both texts?

	Life of Pi	The Crucible
AO1- What quotations are you using to support point 1? AO1- What is the method here? AO2- What analysis are you discussing? AO2- What meanings/connotations are created?
AO3- What key aspects of context would you draw on here to support your point/evidence/analysis? How would readers/audiences respond to this?
AO5- Which critic/interpretation am I going to use to support? What is the quotation that best supports my point/analysis/context?
AO5- How does this interpretation compare to my own view? Am I in agreement with it? Do I disagree with it? How does it position my own view? (AO5)?

Point/Idea 3:

What AO4 comparison/connection am I making between both texts?

	Life of Pi	The Crucible
AO1- What quotations are you using to support point 1? AO1- What is the method here? AO2- What analysis are you discussing? AO2- What meanings/connotations are created?

AO3- What key aspects of context would you draw on here to support your point/evidence/analysis? How would readers/audiences respond to this?
AO5- Which critic/interpretation am I going to use to support? What is the quotation that best supports my point/analysis/context?
AO5- How does this interpretation compare to my own view? Am I in agreement with it? Do I disagree with it? How does it position my own view? (AO5)?

Point/Idea 4:

What AO4 comparison/connection am I making between both texts?

	Text 1	Text 2
AO1- What quotations are you using to support point 1? AO1- What is the method here? AO2- What analysis are you discussing? AO2- What meanings/connotations are created?
AO3- What key aspects of context would you draw on here to support your point/evidence/analysis? How would readers/audiences respond to this?

AO5- Which critic/interpretation am I going to use to support? What is the quotation that best supports my point/analysis/context?
AO5- How does this interpretation compare to my own view? Am I in agreement with it? Do I disagree with it? How does it position my own view? (AO5)?

Point/Idea 5:

What AO4 comparison/connection am I making between both texts?

	Life of Pi	The Crucible
AO1- What quotations are you using to support point 1? AO1- What is the method here? AO2- What analysis are you discussing? AO2- What meanings/connotations are created?
AO3- What key aspects of context would you draw on here to support your point/evidence/analysis? How would readers/audiences respond to this?
AO5- Which critic/interpretation am I going to use to support? What is the quotation that best supports my point/analysis/context?

AO5- How does this interpretation compare to my own view? Am I in agreement with it? Do I disagree with it? How does it position my own view? (AO5)?
--	--	--

Conclusion